

CRUISER NORTH CAROLINA NOT YET FOUND

New York, Nov. 11.—The International News Service after a thorough investigation can state positively that no cablegram was received in this country telling of the destruction of the North Carolina by a mine in Turkish waters. The report is untrue. It apparently originated at the Charlestown, Mass., navy yard.

TO START WORK ON HIGH SCHOOL

Work will be started on the High School building tomorrow under the supervision of Contractor Welch, who is in the employ of the city. It was decided that the best plan would be not to let the work out by contract.

It is believed that the building will be completed in time for the beginning of the next term of schools.

COULD NOT SLEEP, COULD NOT EAT

Woman So Weak and Nervous Could Not Stand Her Children Near Her—Vino! Changed Everything for Her

Plant City, Fla.—"I wish I could tell everybody about Vinol. For nine years I was in bad health. I got so I could not sleep, and I could not stand to have my children come near me. I could not even see or do any heavy housework. I was simply tired all the time. I tried so many medicines I could not recall them all, but nothing did me any good. One day a friend asked me to try Vinol and said it was the best tonic she ever saw. I did so, and soon got the first good night's sleep I had had for a long time. Now I sleep well, my appetite is good, my nervousness is all gone and I am so strong and well I do all my housework and work in my flower garden without feeling tired or nervous. Vinol has made me a well and happy woman."—Mrs. C. H. Miller, Plant City, Fla. Vinol contains the curative, healing principles of fresh cod livers (without oil) and tonic iron.

We ask every weak, run-down, nervous person in this vicinity to try Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, on our guarantee to return their money if it fails to benefit.

TRY TO KEEP GERMANS FROM ENGLISH COAST

Flushing, Holland, Nov. 11.—Bombarding German positions along the coast from sea and air, the Allies are trying to push them back into the interior of Belgium to prevent an attack on the English coast.

British and French aviators are dropping bombs on the trenches in daring exploits, while warships fire incessantly.

Emperor William recently visited Ypres.

DIXMUDE IS TAKEN BY THE GERMANS

Paris, Nov. 11.—Dixmude, the Belgian town around which has centered the hardest fighting in Flanders, has been captured by Germans, was officially admitted this afternoon. The statement follows:

"Battle resumed with great ferocity particularly between Nieuport and Lys. In a general way our front was maintained. Despite violent German attacks we recaptured Lombartzyde and advanced beyond that point, but Germans succeeded in taking Dixmude from us. We still hold the outskirts of that town. Rest of front situation is unchanged."

REVELATIONS OF FRENZIED FINANCE ARE PROMISED

Genesee, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Revelations of frenzied finance on a gigantic scale were promised by the prosecution in an address to the jury in the Siegel trial this morning.

Assistant Prosecutor Train declared that Oscar Prall, Siegel's confidential man, had turned State's evidence and would tell how he juggled millions on instruction of Siegel.

MANY WOODMEN EXPECTED HERE

Neighboring Camps Invited to Attend Memorial Exercises for Lee Driggers Sunday Afternoon at 2:00 O'Clock.

It is expected that there will be possibly 1,000 Woodmen of the World from neighboring camps in Georgia and Alabama in Dothan to attend the unveiling ceremonies at the city cemetery Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the late Lee Driggers, who was killed in an automobile accident last year. The attendance depends largely on weather conditions.

Invitations have been issued by the local lodge to fourteen camps in this State and Georgia, and an excellent program has been prepared.

The memorial address will be delivered by Ernest H. Hill, a well known Dothan lawyer, and there will be a reading by Miss Esther Foster, principal of the Rose Hill school.

An interesting feature will be the work of Spivey brothers, a male quartet. E. O. Spivey, a Dothan policeman, is a member of this quartet of singers, all of whom are said to have good voices.

The local lodge of Woodmen will meet at the hall, North Foster street Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock for organization, and will march to the cemetery where the exercises take place at 2 o'clock.

ROOSEVELT ATTORNEY APPEALS

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 11.—An appeal from Justice Chester's order denying a change of venue in William Barnes' libel suit against Theodore Roosevelt, was argued today before the appellate.

JAILED FOR FORGING "COKE" PRESCRIPTION

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 10.—John O'Keefe is addicted to the use of cocaine, which he has had considerable trouble in procuring owing to the rigid enforcement of the law regarding such matters. So he tried the plan of writing his own prescription, signing the name of some physician and having them filled by a negro messenger at the various drug stores. But he wrote one too many, and now, after several months enjoyment of his favorite drug, he has been captured and languishes in jail awaiting trial on the charge of forgery.

DECISION IN FRANK CASE EXPECTED SOON

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 11.—Final decision of the state Supreme Court in the Frank case is expected any day. It is stated that the justices of the Supreme Court have already had the case under consideration and are preparing to announce the court's decision.

The case involves Frank's motion to dismiss the verdict because he was not present when it was rendered. Affirmation would leave Frank no other recourse than an appeal to executive clemency, unless he can get an appeal to the United States Supreme Court. Reversal would mean a trial on the merits of the case in the Superior court.

The petitioning creditors against Smith & Gilstrap are the Dothan Grocery Company, Malone Grocery Company and the Dothan Produce Company, while the petitioning creditors in the J. A. Marsh case are David Rothschild & Company, Goodell-Brown Dry Goods Company and E. A. Waxelbaum & Bro. Both Ashford firms ranked among the smaller merchants of that place.

WILL INSPECT TOWN DISTRICT

New Fire Chief Announces that Monthly Report Will be Submitted to the City Council.

Monthly inspections of down town stores, of public buildings, places where gasoline and combustibles are kept, of various suspicious places where fire might be easily started and work great havoc, will be made according to Joe Rollins, age 22, who is probably the youngest fire chief in Alabama. He is now Chief of the Dothan Fire Department.

Announcement was also made that monthly reports will be prepared, showing the number of fires, risks, loss and amount of insurance carried, and submitted to the City Council and given out to the press. An inventory of all the property at the station has already been made out.

The combination automobile truck has been washed, rubbed and renovated until it looks almost as new as it did the day it reached Dothan.

The monthly inspection by the Fire Department will include the booths of all the moving picture shows in the city.

NO OFFICIAL DINNERS AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Washington, Nov. 11.—There will be no official dinners and receptions at the White House this year, it was learned definitely tonight, because of the death of Mrs. Wilson. The return of Miss Margaret Wilson today from a visit to her sister, Mrs. F. B. Sayre at Williamstown, Mass., brought the question to the front.

By abandoning formal dinners and reception for the season the president has avoided what officials say would have been an embarrassing situation. A dinner and a reception always have been given in honor of the diplomatic corps. At present, however, representatives here of Great Britain, France, Russia and Japan are not on speaking terms with those of Germany, Austria-Hungary and Turkey.

GERMAN PORTS OPEN TO U. S. COTTON SHIPS

Berlin, Nov. 11.—Count Roventin, a naval critic, in an article in the Deutsche Tages Zeitung invites the United States to send ships laden with cotton to German ports. He declares these ports neither are menaced by mines nor blockaded by British warships. The English would acquiesce, he argues, in the breaking of the North sea blockade, such as it is, by American ships.

VALDOSTA'S GRAMMAR SCHOOL BURNS

Valdosta, Ga., Nov. 11.—The burning of the Adair Street Grammar School in this city last week has necessitated a new arrangement in the school hours for grammar school pupils.

The Adair Street School was one of the buildings where some 250 pupils are taught. Last week the building was burned and the new arrangement was made necessary until the building could be repaired. The work will consume about three weeks during which time the pupils of the Adair Street school will attend classes in the afternoon.

TROUBLE IS BREWING IN MEXICO AGAIN

Aguas Calientes, Nov. 11.—Carranza's conditional offer to resign has been rejected by the peace convention and troops have been ordered to march on to Mexico City. General Villa has been placed in command of all troops under authority of the generals who participated in the Aguas Calientes conference, and he will lead the campaign on the capital.

The movement of troops southward has been on quietly for several days and today special trains rushed more men to the front. Villa has fifty-five thousand men and Carranza about the same number. The first big battle is expected at Queretaro.

McCallum's Store Is Pilfered Again

The drug store of N. H. McCallum, north Foster street, was entered again sometime last night presumably by a burglar on one of his periodical visits. Outside of the time which Dothan people eat, sleep and work by, one of the most looked for events in the city is the pilfering of McCallum's store. Of course, the burglar, who does not like to get in a rut, evidently changes his schedule often enough to throw those who would apprehend him off the track.

The pilfering of McCallum's Drug Store began possibly a year ago, and has continued since that time, at intervals. Back of the store there was an opening which permitted passageway underneath the floor. At the front of the building, near the soda fountain, in a man-hole, and in the old days the mysterious night-pilferer came up into the building through this hole.

The opening at the back of the store is closed now but the burglar attempted to force his way through this place last night and failed, owing to the secure manner in which the plank were nailed. Falling in this, a successful attack was made on the back door.

First, panes of glass were removed, but several strips of iron bars were found in the way. Those were bent back to permit the passage of a body. The trap, which was locked, was twisted but did not break. The burglar was therefore forced to climb through the opening which he had made.

Going to the front of the store, the cash register was carefully inspected, but no money was found. A few cigars were missing today, but nothing else was gone, in so far as is known.

It would seem that the night prowler has a highly cultivated taste for cash and cigars, but he has no desire for pills and other concoctions, none of which have ever been molested, it is said.

It has been suggested that Mr. McCallum leave the key to his back door on the outside in order to facilitate the work of the unidentified culprit, and to keep down the repair bill.

YPRES NOW A PILE OF SMOKING RUINS

Paris, Nov. 11.—With each side alternately assuming the offensive, fighting along the Dixmude-Arras line grows fiercer daily. Thousands of wounded are lying where they fell during the last ten days. Hundreds have died of thirst, hunger and inattention to wounds.

Armentieres is under fire for the fifth time. There is furious street fighting at Comines. The Allies are reported to have fallen back from Lille, which is in ruins. Despite official claims that German bayonets around Ypres were repulsed, unofficial reports say battle line is west of that place. Ypres is now a pile of smoking ruins.

SECRET WIRELESS STATION IN CHUCKED CLOSED

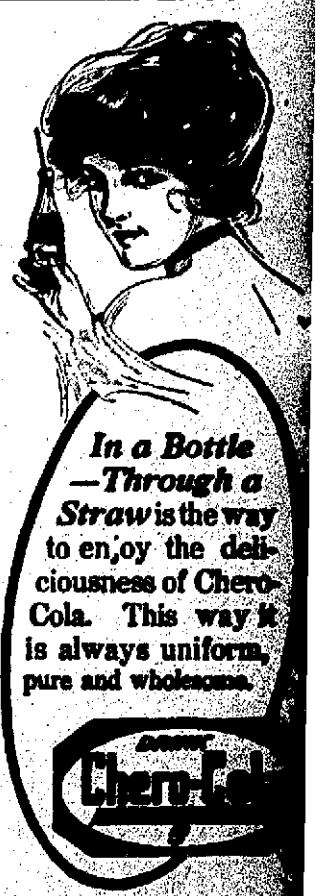

Washington, Nov. 11.—The Navy Department was advised today that a secret wireless station at Aguas Calientes, Lower California, had been ordered closed by Mexican authorities.

The station, erected on Mexican territory, near the American border, is one of several from which, according to British officials here, German cruisers have been receiving information of English vessels.

KILLED EACH OTHER IN ARGUMENT OVER WAR

Marietta, Ga., Nov. 11.—William A. Lindsay, conductor, and John Reynolds, motorman, both of Marietta, are dead as a result of a revolver battle in which they engaged in the car barns here early today.

The men, who had been car men for nine years, had just ended their last trip from Atlanta. The cause of the shooting has not been ascertained, although the police were informed it was provoked by an argument over the European war. Five shots were fired.

FROM THE WAY
IT TALKS.

The Montgomery Times says The Eagle is wrong in placing it in the whiskey column, for it doesn't advocate whiskey.

All we had to judge from was its continued claims that our prohibition laws were failures. When one doesn't like prohibition, the middle ground is uncertain, if he isn't an advocate of the open saloon. There are some, of course, who prefer the dispensary, but we don't believe The Times is in favor of that method of handling it. In fact, from a careful reading of The Times' latest article, one gets the idea that it advocates that mystifying, uncertain, hoped-for condition that never is achieved—the Well-Regulated-Saloon.

When a paper continually cries that prohibition is a failure because blind tigers are in evidence, it is a natural thing to put such a paper in the whiskey column.

The Times makes a somewhat erroneous statement with reference to the situation in Dothan. It says: "The fact that the blind tiger flourishes and sells liquor in Dothan is because public sentiment is against the prohibition law, and a majority want whiskey and are going to have it."

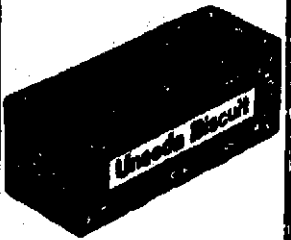

If the "majority in Houston county want whiskey," they didn't so express it with their ballots when the question was voted on and the county refused to vote whiskey in. We still maintain that the majority in Houston county is in favor of prohibition, and we still maintain that prohibition will prohibit when the officers see fit to encourage or demand the enforcement of the laws.

We also believe that as long as the majority is in favor of prohibition that the laws should be put into effect.

We don't claim, and never have, that prohibition laws cure the evils of whiskey drinking. It probably does more to protect the man or the boy who hasn't yet acquired the habit. The old drinker is going to drink, because few ever quit when once thoroughly soaked. No use trying to keep them from getting it, but it is the duty of society to throw all the protection it can around those who are still worth trying to save from the habit.

When the Allies get over into German soil and begin to administer the same kind of doses that Germany has administered, then it will be a new taste for Germany. So far, she has been outside, blowing up property and killing non-combatants and should such a thing be started in Germany she will have the first dose of her own medicine.

FURNISHING THE GROCERIES.

We of this country are going to be called upon to furnish the groceries for many parts of the world from now on. And, in fact, there is no telling just how long we will have to do it. We will hardly be able to raise as much cotton as we formerly raised, and furnish food stuff for the world, but here and there, you will find a man who will let his cotton go by for the purpose of raising something to get money out of. There is no hope of getting any considerable number of farmers to plant their land to something else next year, even though the price of cotton is lower planting time than it is now. We have too many who believe they will perish to death without cotton. But, we expect enough insurgents in the rank to raise feed stuff to supply the rest with.

Talking of legislation does no good. Legislation would really do no good, for there would be so many farmers who would rebel at having their personal liberties thus attacked. This is a scheme we must overcome in our own way. Necessity will show some the way—in fact most of them. When they go to borrow money, buy grain, or supplies on a credit, they will likely run up against a different proposition.

Bryan, this early in the game, sees endorsement for Wilson's administration. Too early yet; we have lots of people blaming Wilson and the Democratic administration for the European war and the price of cotton, and a lot of them are qualified voters, strange to admit.

WORK FOR THE FAIR
NEXT YEAR.

We have picked out something for the Southeast Alabama Fair, to do another year. We want them to go out after more agricultural exhibits. We want them to offer a prize to the boy who raises the most corn to one acre of ground.

There are boys all over the South who are taking down prizes every year. The Macon, Ga., fair had a record of 227 bushels of corn raised on one acre by one Georgia boy, which netted him $187. Suppose we develop a corn-raiser like that, and have the corn on exhibition to show for itself? Wouldn't it be worth something to this section?

We cannot feature things like this too much. We needn't be afraid we will raise too much corn. The market isn't going to be glutted. We are using corn all the time, and will continue to use it, and next year it will be worth even more than it is now.

Let the fair management start out now, and give notice before Christmas about these things, giving all farmers time to get their lands prepared. If we can develop a number of 200-bushels-to-the-acre farmers in this county there will be no such thing as a panic.

WHEN PRESIDENTS GO SOUTH.

Commercial Appeal.
There are several bitter anti-southern newspapers published in this country still blind enough to the possibilities of the south. They never overlook an opportunity to to cast slurs on this section of the country, slurs entirely unheeded for and certainly discreditable to the papers using them. For instance, the determination of President Wilson to rest for a few weeks at Pass Christian has led to the supposition that the president will have a good time solely because he is a southerner by birth and because he is a southern Democrat.

It is a pleasure, therefore, to clip from the Chicago Evening Post the following very fair and pleasing editorial upon the same subject. The Post says:
President Wilson has received an invitation from the entire population of Pass Christian, Miss., to "come again and stop as long as you want to." It is understood that Mr. Wilson, while he has accepted the invitation only conditionally has made up his mind that nothing short of the extension of war's territory to include the United States will keep him away. He had a fine time in Pass Christian.

"It was said before the president went to Pass Christian last year that the southerners would give him an unusually warm welcome because he was a southerner. Nonsense! The South always gives a warm welcome to its guests, from whatever point of the compass they come. Three Republican presidents of the United States in recent years, and very likely some others before them, had what Col. Roosevelt calls a corking good time when they went to visit in a section of the country where not one of them had received enough votes to be worth the counting.

Georgia did a lot for William R. Taft. It adopted him as a citizen of the state, breakfasted him, lunched him, dined him, banqueted him and golfed him without stint. William McKinley had a reception in New Orleans once on a time so markedly warm and hospitable that he said it marked one of the most memorable days of his life. President Roosevelt went to New Orleans when the yellow fever had its grip on the city. The enthusiasm marking his reception is history, and yet the visit came within a short time of the day when he had broken bread with Booker Washington, and it was said that the south would resent the act until the last day.

"President Wilson will have just as fine a time at Pass Christian this year as he did last. He will have a good time both because he is Woodrow Wilson and because he is president of the United States, but he won't have one whit a better time in the south than three northern presidents had there. The south is hospitable at heart."

The south is an appreciative section of the country and expressions showing such a fairness of mind and thought will not soon be forgotten.

SEEING AMERICA FIRST.

Commercial Appeal.
American people have restless feet. They like to be always on the go. In the summer season American tourists can be found in the four corners of the earth. They garner from the excitement of travel a satisfied content.

Europe has been the Mecca of the American tourist. Many who have visited Europe several times have never viewed the wonders of their own world.

It will be different next summer. Europe will be in no receptive mood. American visitors will not be welcomed. European centers will be in no shape to entertain strangers. They are struggling to take care of their own. War changes the face of things. There may be a few venturesome souls who will make the journey to see with their own eyes just what damage has been wrought. This will not apply to the great majority, for, above all things, the American traveler looks first for comfort. We are luxury-loving people and those who can afford the pleasure of travel like to indulge this pleasure only when well enveloped by physical comfort.

Such luxury will not be easily found in Europe for the next few years, so Americans will have to content themselves with seeing America first. It will force them to accept a long neglected opportunity.

When they travel over America they will appreciate what a wonderful country we have, how much more wonderful it is scenically than Europe. We have no historic galleries, no cities crumbling in ruins. But we have the wonders of nature liberally distributed throughout the states. From the wonderful Niagara to the palm gardens of California, from the expansive sunny shores of Florida and the Atlantic to the stately pines and snow-capped peaks of Washington, there can be found something to interest every one.

No mountain range in all Europe, not even excepting the historic Alps, can surpass in grandeur our Rocky Mountains of the west.

To see America first is not a bad idea.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

WHY NOT WAIT?

The railroads of Alabama are asking the Railroad Commission for permission to increase rates in this State on practically all classes and commodities from 15 to 50 per cent. This will work a hardship upon a people now overburdened with debt. The commission has set Monday, November 16 as the date for hearing. Would it not be more in accordance with the proprieties if the present Commission would postpone this hearing 30 days, by which time the new Commission shall have taken hold? By so doing much adverse criticism of the Commission would be eliminated.

THE NIGHT OF THE MOON

(Stephen Chalmers in The New York Times.)

That night the moon was pale,
Pale as with death or fear;
And hush, not sleep, prevailed,
Yet all the skies were clear.
Save for a million stars—
A host of camp fires on a mighty field,
Where Sirens howled all night,
till Mars
Arose in madness, mailed!

That night the moon grew red,
Reflecting distant fire;
Low on the horizon flashed
Chain lightning, mounting higher,
Outlining one great cloud, Shaped like a hideous beast with bloody jaws,
From whose hoarse throat, sudden and loud
A roar like thunder crashed!

That night's despairing moon
Hid her pale face from shame,
Her brow with cloud drift
stained,
Each star-fire's twinkling flame,
Dimmed and went out, as though Powers of Darkness conquered Legions of Light!
And in the bloodshot heavens—
lo!
The war dog was unchained!

No more the lovers' moon,
Nor e'er the sun's frank light!
The red-eyed fury's pace
Flashed down a leoprous white,
Reddened the rare green sod;
Trampled the flow'rs that glowed as fall's stars;

And each destroyer claims his
cause for God,
Where God hath turned His face!

New Century Club

Entertained—

Decidedly one of the most interesting meetings of the New Century Club, was the one on yesterday with Mrs. J. M. Stevens, ex-hostess.

The entire house was abloom with vases of paper white narcissi and roses.

A delightful plate luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon. The guests of the club were Miss Frances Conn of Milledgeville,
Ga., and Mrs. H. H. McNeill, Jr.

Roll Call was answered to with interesting facts concerning other French writers than Hugo.

An interesting discussion of books six, seven and eight of Fantine, was led by Mrs. J. J. Flowers. A well written paper on the "Character Sketch of the Bishop" was read by Mrs. M. A. Ellison.

Thoroughly enjoyable was the talk on the book, Fantine by Mrs.
R. T. Ghent. The program closed with a lively discussion on Current Events led by Mrs. S. A. Jeter.

At the club meeting Tuesday of the D. A. Q. Club, the prize, silk hose, was won by Mrs. R. H. Walker.

Miss Barton Harrison and Miss Evelyn McRae of McRae, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harrison in Hartford.

Mrs. O. M. Hill has returned to her home in Waycross, Ga., after a pleasant visit to relatives.

Beautiful Tribute to Mrs. Phoebe Coleman—

The club women all over the state are looking forward with pleasure to the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs, which convenes in Montgomery, November 17, 18 and 19, notes the Birmingham News. A very beautiful tribute in the form of a floral altar is to be erected in the convention hall in the Exchange Hotel as a tribute to Mrs.
Phoebe Coleman, a former president of the federation, and who, though dead, lives in the memory of the loving club women whom she served.

It was a cherished hope of hers to establish a permanent endowment scholarship fund. She was the originator; she worked assiduously to make the loan scholarship secure so as not to continually ask the clubs to contribute. This scholarship fund of the federation whereby girls worthy and ambitious are put in the way of gaining a college education is a noble work of the federation, and already some girls are returning the loan as soon as they are able and all are showing their appreciation of what the A. F. W.
C. has done for them. Already Mrs.
Coleman had raised over $3,000 and the delegates are going to put their little sums on this floral altar in memory of her who was the inspiration of the permanent scholarship.
She had planned a big charity ball during this convention, people were to be invited from all around the surrounding country and the fund raised was to go towards her cherished plans. The money that will be placed thereon by the delegates has been raised by concerts and other entertainments they have given,
and as they place their mite tributes on the floral altar they will miss the moving spirit in this work.

Mrs. Coleman, whose sad and untimely death in the spring cast a shadow upon the whole state of Alabama.

Mrs. Coleman had many friends in Dothan who mourned her untimely death.

PANAMA CANAL TAKES ON WARLIKE APPEARANCE

Reported Mexican Threat Cause of Preparations to Meet Hostile Army.

Sixteen miles of trenches for rifle men, with as many miles more of approach and maneuvering trails, suitable for cavalry and mountain, even field, artillery, have been completed
along the Panama canal.

The trenches are capable of accommodating, if necessary, 25,000 men.
They have been so plotted that in many places they will make possible not only frontal but flank fire upon any attacking party.

Soldiers of the Tenth Infantry are on duty at the locks and at every other part of the canal where a crank and dynamite might do damage or where a hostile army might strike.

Work on the fortifications at either entrance to the canal has so far proceeded that there are several pieces of high power ordnance in readiness to do effective work at any moment.

Officers of the submarine fleet on duty at Panama have "plotted ranges"
over the entire field of this ordnance.

Members of the zone police have been put on "plain clothes" duty, and attend every party of tourists, ready at once to note any suspicious action
by any one who might try to see too much.

Work on the trenches has been under way for some time. The other activities followed the declaration of hostilities in Panama City announce-ing that the Mexicans would "never allow the Panama canal to be finished."

Visitors have lately been surprised by the appearance at every station along the way of soldiers on their trains. Guarding bridges and culverts, the blowing up of which might interrupt the canal, are the duties, as well as guarding the approaches to the locks of the canal themselves, those soldiers have missed their accustomed ice water. Every train that stops in their neighborhood, therefore, is amazed by the thirty men, to the amazement of the passengers, and while good natured conductors look the other way,
the soldiers drink deep.

SPECIAL SERVICE SHIPS.

Winslow's Command Recalls Schley's
Famous "Flying Squadron."
The creation of the special service squadron for operations in Mexican waters recalls to naval veterans the assembly of the famous "flying squadron," under the command of the late Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley,
in the early days of the Spanish war.
In the present instance the special service squadron is made up of most inconspicuous elements, ranging from the most powerful battleships in the world to the tiniest gunboats.

This squadron, starting with sixteen vessels and likely to be augmented to twenty, will be serviceable for blockading purposes, and the smaller craft will be particularly useful for inshore work.
Rear Admiral Cameron McRae Winslow, commander of the squadron, is a nephew of the Winslow who commanded the famous old Kearsarge in her battle with the Alabama. In the Spanish war Rear Admiral Winslow
then a lieutenant, cut the telegraph cable near Santiago, Cuba, and was wounded in the hand. The cable cutting work was done from a small boat commanded by Lieutenant Winslow.
Although himself wounded and the boat was subjected to a hot fire from the Spanish riflemen ashore, Winslow kept at the work until the cable had been grappled, hauled across the bow
of the boat and a piece cut out of it.

makes it finer in appearance, more delicious
to the taste, more healthful.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters
and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weaker from the over-
work; they get sluggish; the elimi-native tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation,
thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.
